"Our whole family went driving across the sand dunes in buggies at the aptly named Little Sahara. We cruised along breathtaking cliffs overlooking the ocean and weaved in and out of the winding trees, home to many koalas (we spotted 22 of them!)"- Teresa Palmer, South Australian actress (Vogue Living)

Surf & Sand Buggy Adventure (110 minutes)
$147 per adult, $97 per child (3-12 years)

The Surf & Sand Buggy Adventure takes you to wild places totally inaccessible to anyone else. After admiring koalas in the 500 year old gum trees along the banks of the Eleanor River, your experienced guide will take you to the edge of the Earth! At the coast you'll marvel at the beauty of the rugged cliffs, turquoise waters and huge swell. You'll get to go to a pristine remote beach where there will be nothing between you and Antarctica besides the vast Southern Ocean. Eastern Ospreys are a common sight out here. Finish off, of course, with a ride through the desert-like landscape of Little Sahara's epic inland sand dunes. This adventure is sure to be one to remember!

Little Sahara Buggy Tour (50 minutes)

Buckle up and let your guide show you beautiful Little Sahara. Ride in a Yamaha Viking UTV Buggy through picturesque scenery that few visitors are privileged enough to see. Begin in the natural scrub along the banks of the Eleanor River, looking up into the 500 year old South Australian blue gums for koalas. Learn about the flora, fauna and history of the area from your guide and learn about native seasonal bush foods along the way. Finish off with a ride through the unique desert-like landscape of Little Sahara. This 2.5 square kilometre natural inland sand dune system boasts dunes up to 70m above sea level and is recognised as a National Geological Monument. This is the perfect tour for anyone wanting to just sit back and enjoy an adventure through nature.
